M.M.S. BEDI, J. (ORAL)

Counsel for the petitioner, on asking of the Court, informs that the challan has already been presented and the arguments raised by him regarding the petitioner having not committed any offence under Prevention of Corruption Act are based upon the documents which forms part of the challan.

In view of said circumstances, this petition is disposed of as premature at this stage with liberty to the petitioner to raise all the pleas before the trial Court at the time of consideration of charges. It is expected that all the pleas raised by the petitioner will be considered at the time of consideration of charges.
