AT CHANDIGARH

(226)

CRM-M-40032-2015

Decided on: January 07, 2016.

Talwinder Singh @ Talvinder Singh @ Nikku

.... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

..... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI

Present: Mr. Jitender Singh Dadwal, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Jashan Preet Singh, AAG, Punjab.

Mr. A.P.S. Mann, Advocate, for the complainant.

M.M.S. BEDI, J (ORAL)

Petitioner seeks concession of regular bail in a case registered at the instance of Santokh Singh Gill alleging that the petitioner led an unlawful assembly of 14-15 people and attacked the complainant with iron rods and hockeys and trespassed in his house. So far as petitioner is concerned, he has been attributed individually a simple injury on the head of the complainant.

Taking into consideration the fact that the challan has already been presented; petitioner has been in custody w.e.f. 14.09.2014; complainant having already been examined and chances of proceedings being delayed on account of application under Section 319 Cr.P.C filed by the complainant and allowed by the trial Court, the petitioner can be granted concession of bail as there is nothing on record to indicate that the petitioner would be able to tamper with the evidence in any manner. First application of the petitioner was disposed of as withdrawn on 17.09.2015.

Petition is allowed. Petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court subject to the condition that he will not commit similar offence of which he is accused of during pendency of the trial. In case of violation of said condition, it will be open to the complainant to seek cancellation of the bail.
