Date of decision : 14.07.2016

Suvrat Kashyap @ Suvrat Kumar and another

... Petitioners

versus

State of Haryana and another

... Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE ANITA CHAUDHRY

Present: Mr. K.P. Singh, Advocate for the petitioners

Ms. Dimple Jain, AAG Haryana

Mr. Vivek K. Thakur, Advocate for respondent No. 2

ANITA CHAUDHRY, J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the petitioners states that in compliance of order dated 28.11.2015 the petitioners have joined the investigation and no recovery has to be effected and all the dowry articles were returned. He further states that girl had remained in their house only for 40 days and she left for Chandigarh to attend her Ph.D. Course on 06.06.2015. He further states that the couple had gone to Bali for their honeymoon and the police is in possession of phone and no such data could be recovered.

Learned counsel appearing for respondent No. 2 states that life of the complainant has been ruined and the petitioner was in a relationship and was in contact with her. He states that in Whatsup messages he had admitted to the relationship. He further states that those were handed over to the police.

Since the petitioners have joined the investigation and their custodial interrogation is not necessary, the petition is allowed and interim order dated 28.11.2015 is hereby made absolute subject to the condition that the petitioners will join the investigation as and when required by the police and will not tamper with evidence or hamper the investigation and will not leave India without permission of the Court and will comply with the conditions contained in Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.
