M.M.S. BEDI, J (ORAL)

Petitioner seeks concession of regular bail in a case registered at the instance of Madan Lal alleging that the petitioner in connivance with 3-4 other co-accused had hatched a conspiracy and called the complainant at a place where he was introduced to co-accused a girl who alleged that the petitioner had committed wrong acts with her. The petitioner allegedly called the complainant by telling him that Reader of S.P. had demanded sum of Rs. 20 lacs as gratification for compromising the matter of rape. The petitioner had taken a sum of Rs.12 lacs from the complainant to get the matter compromised.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that challan has been presented. The petitioner has been in custody w.e.f. 23.06.2015 and that he has been falsely implicated in this case.

After hearing learned State counsel, it transpires that that the petitioner has been involved in other four cases of similar nature.

Learned counsel for the petitioner informs that the petitioner has been granted bail in two cases and convicted in one case of similar nature.

Taking into consideration the seriousness of the allegations against the petitioner of having extorted money by immoral means by using a female, no ground is made out to grant bail to the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner at this stage submits that he may be permitted to withdraw the petition, with liberty to the petitioner to file a fresh petition after recording of some evidence.

Dismissed as withdrawn.
