ANITA CHAUDHRY, J(ORAL)

Counsel for the petitioner states that they had challenged the order passed by the Court below, vide which the permission to travel abroad was refused and permission was accorded by this Court and the petitioner had gone abroad and as directed, the petitioner had come back and had appeared in the Court but since it was a holiday, he got his presence marked before the Duty Magistrate and today he is present in the Court. The counsel also states that the amount was deposited.

The counsel appearing for respondent no.2 states that the amount has not been paid to them.

The counsel for the petitioner had shown the order passed by the Magistrate, vide which the order for release of the amount had been made. Counsel further states that they are ready to deposit the amount directly in the account of the complainant in the future and she may be directed to give the account details.

The counsel for respondent no.2 states that the amount was deposited in treasury and it was difficult to withdraw that amount. The complainant should approach the Court concerned for withdrawal.

The counsel for the petitioner states that since the matter is fixed in June for framing of charge, he wants to travel abroad. The petitioner may approach the trial Court for that purpose. The complainant would provide her account details to the petitioner today itself.

The petition was allowed on the last date. It had been kept for today only to see that the petitioner returns to India. No further order is required. The petition is disposed of.
