Heard learned counsel for the rival parties.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has sought parole to attend marriage of his nephew which is to take place tomorrow, i.e. 03.12.2016. He submits that the petitioner can be sent for attending the marriage under the custody of armed guards for which the petitioner would pay the expenditure.

Learned State counsel submits that the petitioner is a history-sheeter and the request may not be accepted.

However, I find that the petitioner himself is ready to go to attend the marriage of his nephew under the custody of armed guards, the liberty should be granted to him to attend the marriage as claimed.

In that view of the matter, the respondent-State is directed to take the petitioner for marriage of his nephew under the custody of armed guards looking to the objection raised by the State for attending the marriage, and then cause the petitioner entry in the Jail again.

Disposed of, accordingly.

A copy of this order be given to the learned counsel for the petitioner under the signatures of the Bench Secretary.
