CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE RITU BAHRI

Present: Mr. A.K. Khunger, Advocate for the petitioner.

RITU BAHRI, J. (Oral)

This petition is for setting aside of order dated 26.05.2015 and order dated 15.09.2015.

Brief facts of the case are that the petitioner filed the complaint against the accused/respondents on the allegations that she solemnized the marriage with Manpreet Singh on 10.12.2010. A daughter was born out of this wedlock. After marriage, the accused started beating the complainant on account of bringing less dowry and was thrown out of her matrimonial house. The panchayats were also convened but the accused persons did not stop from their acts. However, the trial Court only summoned Manpreet Singh-husband of the petitioner. The revision petition filed by the petitioner was also dismissed. The learned trial Court relied upon the report of the police under Section 202 Cr.P.C a detail enquiry was conducted by the police in the present case and the police reach to the conclusion that the dispute is only between the complainant and her husband. It has further been observed that Manpreet Singh is working in CRPF as constable and is unable to take the petitioner along with him due to non-availability of residential accommodation in the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

Further the articles given to accused are gift items apparently. Reference has been made to a case of G.V. Rao v. L.H.V Prasad and others, 2000(2) RCR (Criminal) 290 wherein it has been held that the High Court should have quashed the complaint arising out of a matrimonial dispute wherein all family members had been roped in to the matrimonial litigation.

Since initial report under Section 202 Cr.P.C reflects that the articles given to the accused were gift items apparently, therefore, no case for interfering in the orders dated 26.05.2015 and 15.09.2015 is made out.

The petition stands dismissed.
