

State of Haryana and others Vs. Surinder Nath Goyal

Present: Mr. Shivendra Swaroop, AAG, Haryana.

Vide order and judgment dated 7.10.2016, this Court had enhanced the compensation awarded to the landowners in this matter, and also in the connected appeals preferred by the other landowners. And, as a necessary consequence the appeals filed by the State were dismissed.

The office has re-listed the matter, for while the appeal was still in the motion list, this Court vide order dated 28.09.2001, had directed the appellant-State to deposit 50% of the enhanced compensation with the executing Court so that it could be released to the respondents-landowners without furnishing any security. Whereas, the balance 50% of the enhanced compensation was ordered to be deposited with the State Bank of Patiala, High Court branch through the Registrar of this Court, with a further direction that the said amount be converted into an FDR.

Office note reveals that in compliance to the order dated 28.09.2001, the State had deposited a consolidated bank draft for a sum of ₹1,53,893/- which was converted into an FDR, which is in the custody of the cashier of this Court. Approval is solicited to transmit the said amount to the executing Court for, the matter stands finally decided.

That being so, the Registrar of this Court is directed to liquidate the said FDR, and the requisite amount be transmitted to the executing Court, which in turn shall release the same to landowners in terms of the final judgment, rendered by this Court, dated 7.10.2016 (Darshana Devi Vs. State of Haryana and another) and other connected matters.

IOIN stands disposed of.
