Learned State counsel admits that there is no opinion of the doctor that any injury was dangerous to life.

The allegations against the petitioner are that she had caused an injury which was dangerous to life. The injuries are simple in nature. The complainant could not produce any opinion of the doctor to support her plea.

Looking to all these circumstances, but without commenting on the merits of the case, the petition is allowed and order dated 12.12.2014 granting interim anticipatory bail to the petitioner is made absolute.
