The petitioner is seeking regular bail in FIR No. 3 dated 10.09.2015 registered at Police Station Women, Sirsa, District Sirsa under Sections 376(2)(n), 452, 506 IPC.

The photographs which were appended with the challan have been shown.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that husband of the complainant was arrested for committing rape upon the wife of the petitioner and this case is a counter blast to that and he in custody since the beginning. The statement of the prosecutrix has been recorded and the trial is taking time. He further contends that no date or time of the incident has been mentioned and it is a false case.

Learned State counsel submits that the mobile phone was recovered from the son of the petitioner and pictures which were recovered have been appended with the challan. It is also submitted that 6 witnesses have been examined and only 9 witnesses remain to be examined.

The petitioner was arrested on 06.10.2015. The allegations against the petitioner are serious. The trial Court would examine the issues which have been raised here. The trial is going at a fast pace. No case for bail is made out.

The petition is dismissed.
