262 IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

CRR-1846 of 2011
Date of decision : 25.07.2016

Bhupinder Singh

....Petitioner

versus

State of Haryana

.....Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE AJAY TEWARI

Present : Mr. Paras Talwar, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Sandeep Vashisht, DAG, Haryana.

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This is a petition filed against the concurrent conviction of the petitioner FIR No. 52 registered under Section 323,324,326 IPC read with Section 34 of IPC. Custody certificate has been produced in the Court which is taken on record.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that there was one fracture injury which as per the doctor could have been suffered by fall. Three persons were indicted viz the father and two sons. The father had expired and brother has served out his complete sentence.

The petitioner is 62 years old and has undergone 2 months and 16 days of total sentence.

Learned DAG has accepted these facts.

In view of these facts, I do not deem it appropriate to interfere with the order of conviction. However in my opinion, there is good reason to reduce the sentence. In the circumstances, this revision petition is dismissed but sentence is reduced to that has already undergone by the petitioner.

Petition stands disposed of.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending criminal miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
