Mr. Aditya Sanghi, Advocate, for the appellants.

A.B. CHAUDHARI, J.(Oral)

Heard learned counsel for the rival parties. Perused the impugned judgment and reasons recorded by the learned trial Judge for recording the conviction and then sentencing the accused persons on probation under Section 4(1) of Probation of Offenders Act, 1958.

Learned counsel for the revision-petitioner vehemently urged that the learned trial Judge has committed an error in releasing the appellants on probation though they had committed serious assault on revision-petitioner and his family members. He, therefore, prayed reversal of order of sentence and to impose severe sentence on the respondents.

I have perused reasons recorded by the learned trial Judge for exercising the discretion to release the respondents under Section 4(1) of Probation of Offenders Act on probation by obtaining bond of good conduct for two years. The trial judge has exercised discretion, for which it has given sound reasons. It is not possible for me under the revisional jurisdiction to interfere with the discretion exercised by the learned trial Judge. I do not find any perversity or illegality on its part to do so. In the result, I make following order:-

ORDER

Criminal Revision No.550 of 2010 is dismissed.
