1. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
2. To be referred to the Reporters or not?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This petition has been filed for quashing of orders dated proclaimed offender.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that pursuant to these orders the petitioner had surrendered before the trial Court, joined the investigation and now the challan has also been filed and in in this view of the matter he prays that the impugned orders may be set aside.

Learned Additional Advocate General has accepted this factual assertion.

In these circumstances, without going into the merits of the case, I do not deem it appropriate to deny the aforesaid concession to the petitioner.

Resultantly, the impugned orders are set aside and the interim order dated 24.12.2015 is made absolute. Petition stands allowed.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending criminal miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
