- 1. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
- 2. To be referred to the Reporters or not?
- 3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

Present: Mr. Mohit Sadana, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. J.S. Sekhon, AAG, Punjab.

Mr. Saurabh Arora, Advocate, for respondents No. 5 to 6.

JASPAL SINGH, J.

Instant petition has been preferred under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure by Kamal Krishan son of Charanjit Lal seeking direction to official respondents No. 2 to 4 to protect his life and liberty, at the hands of respondents No. 5 to 7.

2. In response to the notice of motion, reply by way of affidavit of Sh. Anil Kumar Kohli, PPS, Deputy Superintendent of Police (I), Khanna has been filed on behalf of respondents No. 1 to 4.

3. A glance at the aforesaid reply-cum-affidavit transpires that the petitioner got service benefits on his superannuation from Municipal Corporation, Khanna. Since, petitioner is addicted to alcohol, he was admitted in de-addiction centre owned by respondent No.7 by his family members i.e. sons. An inquiry was also conducted in this regard during which, it was found that the dispute was in between the petitioner (father) and respondent No.5 (son) and respondent No.6 (daughter-in-law).

4. At present, the petitioner is stated to have been residing with his other sons namely Jaspal and Raj Kumar.

5. As far as providing protection to his life and liberty is concerned, no such application has been moved by the petitioner to the police and if any such application is moved after consideration thereof, necessary security will be provided to him.

6. So, in view of the contents of the reply-cum-affidavit, the instant petition has rendered infructuous. As such, the same is disposed of. However, the petitioner shall be at liberty to have recourse to the other remedies available to him in accordance with law, if so desired by him.
