

IN THE HIGH COURT FOR THE STATES OF PUNJAB
AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH.

Cr. Misc. M 46267 of 2016
Date of decision: 23.12.2016

Baljinder Singh @ Pamma

Petitioner

vs.

State of Punjab and anr

Respondent

Present: Mr. Karan Garg, Advocate.

M.M.S.BEDI,J.

In a private complaint, on account of petitioner having not put in appearance pursuant to the summoning order and having not made himself available thereafter, the order declaring him proclaimed offender has been passed.

Counsel submits that the petitioner had not been served. Without entering into the controversy regarding reasonableness for non appearance or the knowledge of the petitioner regarding pendency of the private complaint, I deem it appropriate to dispose of this petition in limine with a direction that in case the petitioner puts an appearance before the summoning/ trial court within a period of one month, he will be released on bail on his furnishing bail bonds/ surety bonds to the satisfaction of the concerned court, without prejudice to the other rights of the petitioner. In case the petitioner does not put in appearance within a period of one month, this petition will be deemed to have been dismissed.
