CRM No.M-4709 of 2016 (O&M)

... Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana

... Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.

Present:- Mr. J.S. Hooda, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Vivek Saini, DAG, Haryana.

Mr. Surinder Dagar, Advocate for the complainant.

TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.J.

This is the 3rd application preferred by the petitioner under Section 439 Cr.P.C. seeking benefit of regular bail pending trial in case FIR No.142 dated 20.08.2014, under Sections 148/149/323/307/120-B IPC and Sections 25/25(54)/59 of the Arms Act, registered at Police Station Hassanpur, District Palwal.

As per prosecution version, offence under Section 307 IPC has been cited on account of injuries having been suffered by Partap Singh and which have been allegedly attributed to the present petitioner.

On 06.07.2015, this Court had disposed of the bail application previously filed i.e. CRM No.M-3347 of 2015 by observing that the deposition of witness/injured, Partap Singh would be material.

Thereafter, petitioner preferred CRM No.M-25011 of 2015 before this Court seeking benefit of regular bail and which was dismissed by observing that injured Partap Singh had been duly examined before the trial Court and had supported the prosecution version. It was further observed that the petitioner was involved in three other criminal cases and that the trial is at the final stage as only three prosecution witnesses remain to be examined.

Suffice it to observe that while considering the present application i.e. the 3rd application seeking regular bail, the only change in circumstance would be the length of incarceration suffered by the petitioner.

Learned State counsel would submit that only one witness i.e. the Investigating Officer remains to be examined and the date before the trial Court is now fixed as 08.04.2016.

While declining the present petition filed by the petitioner seeking benefit of regular bail, the same is disposed of with a direction to the trial Court to expedite the trial and in any case would conclude the same within a period of three months from today.

Disposed of.
