CRM-M No.5455 of 2016 (O&M)

Date of Decision: 26.05.2016

Ramesh Chand

..... Petitioner

Vs.

State of Haryana

..... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASWANT SINGH

Present: Mr. Jangvir S. Hooda, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Yashwinder Singh, Deputy Advocate General, Punjab
for the respondent/State assisted by S.I. Om Parkash.

JASWANT SINGH, J. (Oral)

The prayer is for grant of anticipatory bail under Section 438 Cr.P.C. to the petitioner/accused-Ramesh Chand in case FIR No.133 dated 13.12.2015, under Sections 379-A/34 of the Indian Penal Code, registered with Police Station GRP Rewari, District Mahendergarh.

As per the allegations, co-accused Dharamvati and Sonu were apprehended at the spot by the complainant for having snatched gold chain of his wife in a moving train from Mahendergarh to a place in Rajasthan. On the disclosure statement of said co-accused, name of the petitioner has surfaced as being leader of the gang of such thieves.

It was contended that a false case has been foisted upon the petitioner by the police merely because he happens to be father of co-accused Dharamvati. Petitioner is stated to be residing 150 kilometers away and is stated to be not involved in any criminal case.

Learned State Counsel, assisted by SI Om Parkash, submits that in the investigation, it has come on the police file that the snatched gold chain of the complainant party was handed over to the petitioner/accused by his co-accused daughter Dharamvati. He further submits that although the petitioner has joined the investigation but recovery of the said gold chain is yet to be effected

Keeping in view the above and nature and gravity of the alleged offence, no case for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner is made out as the custodial interrogation of the petitioner would be required for completing the chain of investigation.

Accordingly, the present petition stands dismissed.
