Inspector Manjit Singh, SHO along with SI Parvesh Chopra, Police Station Sultanwind, Amritsar have come present and on their instructions, learned State counsel submits that the police has never kept the keys of the house in question and there is no occasion for the police to intervene and that they would have no objection if the owner of the house opens his house as per his own desire.

Faced with the aforesaid situation, learned counsel for the petitioner wishes to withdraw the present petition. Allowed to do so.
