Vs.

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE DAYA CHAUDHARY

Present: Mr. Rajiv Joshi, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Ritu Punj, Addl. Advocate General., Punjab.

DAYA CHAUDHARY, J. (Oral)

This petition has been filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C for grant of regular bail to petitioner in case FIR No.166 dated 27.09.2015 registered at Police Station Adampur, Jalandhar under Section 306, 34 IPC.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has falsely been implicated only on the basis of suspicion. The marriage between the deceased and her husband was more than 7 years old and there were two children from the said wedlock. The petitioner is sister-in-law of the deceased and has been residing separately. There was no reason to abet the deceased to commit suicide, even no complaint was ever made by the deceased before the incident. He further submits that the complainant as well as material witnesses have been examined.

Learned State counsel has not disputed the custody period as well as recording of statement of two material witnesses including complainant but opposes bail.

In view of the statement made by learned counsel for the petitioner and by considering the fact that complainant has been examined, no material witness remain to be examined and there is no possibility that the petitioner may influence the witnesses who have been released on regular bail; petitioner is in custody since 27.09.2015; no purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner behind the bars as trial may take sometime to conclude.

Accordingly, this petition is allowed and the petitioner, namely, Gurwinder Kaur is released on bail subject to furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of Chief Judicial Magistrate/duty Magistrate, Jalandhar.
