...Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE JAISHREE THAKUR

Present: Mr. DS Nigha, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Mikail Kad, AAG, Punjab.

Mr. Vikram Singh Narwal, Advocate, for respondent Nos. 2 and 3.

JAISHREE THAKUR, J. (Oral)

This petition has been filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure seeking for quashing of FIR No. 156 dated 9.12.2010 (Annexure P/1) registered under Sections 406, 498A and 323 IPC at Police Station Dera Bassi, District S.A.S. Nagar and all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom in view of the compromise (Annexure P/2).

The marriage of the Poonam Rani-respondent No.2 was solemnized with petitioner on 30.4.2010, as per Hindu rites. However, due to temperamental differences between the husband and wife, matrimonial dispute arose and the aforesaid FIR has been registered on the statement of complainant-Harbans Singh. Now with the intervention of respectable persons, the matrimonial dispute has been amicably settled between the parties and they have entered into a compromise.

Keeping in view the fact that the parties have entered into a compromise, they were directed to appear before learned trial court for getting their statements recorded in support of the compromise. In pursuance of the direction, a report has been received from the Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Dera Bassi, stating that the compromise arrived at between the parties is without any pressure or coercion from any one and the same is genuine one.

Learned Assistant Advocate General, Punjab, on instructions from the Investigating Officer and learned counsel for the complainant-respondent No.2 admit the factum of compromise and submit that in case the parties have indeed settled their matrimonial dispute, the State would have no objection to the quashing of the FIR, in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have also gone through the record.

In a decision, based on compromise, none of the parties is a loser. Rather, a compromise not only brings peace and harmony between the parties to a dispute, but also restores tranquility in the society. After considering the nature of offences allegedly committed and the fact that both the parties have amicably settled their matrimonial dispute, continuance of criminal prosecution would be an exercise in futility, as the chances of ultimate conviction are bleak.

Consequently, keeping in view the fact that matrimonial dispute has been amicably settled and in view of the law laid by the Hon'ble

Supreme Court in Gian Singh Versus State of Punjab and another, 2012 (4) RCR (Cr.) 543, this petition is allowed and FIR No. 156 dated 9.12.2010 (Annexure P/1) registered under Sections 406, 498A and 323 IPC at Police Station Dera Bassi, District S.A.S. Nagar and all subsequent proceedings arising out of the same are quashed.

The petition stands disposed of.
