AT CHANDIGARH

v.

State of Haryana and others

... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE A.B. CHAUDHARI

Present: Shri Naveen Chopra, Advocate for the petitioner.

Shri Chetan Sharma, Assistant Advocate General, Haryana.

A.B. Chaudhari, J. (Oral):

Learned Counsel for the petitioner submits that this Court had on 22.9.2016 rejected the petition for anticipatory bail filed by Vish Chaudhary @ Vishwajeet Chaudhary, who is co-accused in the FIR along with two others. The other two accused were granted anticipatory bail by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Karnal. He further submits that the petitioner prays for cancellation of their bail before this Court on the ground that after grant of anticipatory bail, the two other co-accused have not returned cheque book, passport etc. of the petitioner and thus the anticipatory bail granted to the respondents is required to be cancelled. He also submits that they have been extending threats to the petitioner in order to compound/compromise.

In view of the fact that the grant of anticipatory bail to the said two accused was made by learned Additional Sessions Judge, the remedy for cancellation of bail in the above fact situation clearly lies before the said court. The petition is therefore disposed of reserving liberty in favour of the petitioner to approach the same court, if so advised.
