CHANDIGARH

CRM No. M-9549 of 2016 (O&M)
Date of Decision: 17.3.2016

Sukha @ Sukhdev Singh

--Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

--Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.

Present:- Mr. Ramesh Sharma, Advocate for the petitioner.

TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.J

Present petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C seeking quashing of order dated 2.12.2014, passed by learned J.M.I.C., Kapurthala in terms of which the petitioner has been declared a Proclaimed Offender in case F.I.R No.74 dated 4.11.2008 under sections 141, 150, 160, 188, 148, 149, 283, 186 I.P.C, registered at Police Station, Dhilwan, District Kapurthala.

Concededly, the petitioner having been summoned to face trial as an additional accused on account of an application under section 319 Cr.P.C moved by the prosecution having been allowed, evaded the trial proceedings and which has led to initiation of proclamation proceedings and finally culminated in passing of the impugned order.

Counsel appearing for the petitioner, at the very outset, furnishes an undertaking that the petitioner would surrender before the Trial Court within a period of one week. He prays for indulgence of this Court to issue directions to the Trial Court that, if, thereafter, an application seeking regular bail is filed, the same be decided forthwith. Such prayer is being made on the basis that in the trial relating to the other co-accused, the same has culminated in conviction and in which only a fine of Rs.500/- each has been imposed.

Keeping in view such limited prayer made by counsel, present petition is disposed of with a direction that in case petitioner surrenders before the Trial Court, within a period of one week from today and thereafter files an application for bail, the court would make an endeavor to expedite disposal of the same and would take a sympathetic view keeping in mind the facts and circumstances of the case.

Disposed of.
