Mr.S.K.Kaushik, Advocate for the petitioners(in CRR-3263-2016).

Mr. Satish Saini, DAG, Haryana.

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This order shall dispose of the aforesaid two revisions. Since both the revisions have arisen out of a common FIR, the same are being disposed of by this order.

Both the revisions have been filed against the concurrent conviction of the petitioner/s whereby they have been convicted for a period of one year for the commission of offence under Sections 61(i)(a), 61(i)(b), 61(i)(c), 63 and 63-A of the Excise Act, for having been found in possession of 200 bottles of illicit liquor. On the last date the following order was passed in CRR-2893-2016:-

“This revision has been filed against the concurrent conviction of the petitioner under various provisions of the Excise Act wherein they have been sentenced for one year imprisonment.

Learned counsel states that he does not wish to press this petition on merits but there may be some scope for reduction in sentence.

Notice of motion.

On the asking of the Court, Mr. Amrik Narwal, Deputy Advocate General, Haryana, accepts notice on behalf of the respondent.

Learned counsel for the petitioner undertakes to supply a copy of the petition to the learned D.A.G. during the course of the day.

Adjourned to 05.10.2016.”

Learned counsel for the petitioner/s have argued that the petitioner/s have otherwise clean antecedents and have not ever been involved in any other case. This fact has been confirmed from the custody certificate/s which have been placed on record by way of affidavit/s of Shamsher Singh Dahiya, Superintendent, Central Jail, Hisar which are taken on record.

In the circumstances even while dismissing the revisions I deem it appropriate to reduce the sentence of the petitioner/s to five months.

Since the main case has been decided, the Criminal Misc. Application, if any, also stands disposed of.
