Mr. D.K.Gupta, Advocate has filed Power of Attorney on behalf of the petitioner.

Petitioner and learned counsel for respondent No.2 (complainant) have made a joint statement that the matter has been settled between the parties amicably out of Court and the complaint filed by the respondent (complainant) under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act before the Trial Court be dismissed as withdrawn and accordingly, this revision petition may also be dismissed as withdrawn.

The petitioner has no objection if the amount of ₹50,000/- deposited by the petitioner before filing the present revision petition is disbursed to the respondent/complainant by the office of the Hon'ble High Court.

The offense is compoundable and the parties have compounded the same. In view of the statement, as mentioned above, the complaint filed by respondent No.2 (complainant) before the Trial Court under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act is dismissed as withdrawn. Consequently, upon withdrawal of the said complaint, the present revision petition is also dismissed as withdrawn.

The amount of ₹50,000/- deposited by the petitioner before filing the revision petition may be disbursed to the respondent/complainant.

Copy of the order as well as statement be given to learned counsel/parties and file be returned to the High Court.
