DEEPAK SIBAL, J. (Oral)

Through the present petition, the petitioner seeks consideration of his candidature for appointment to the post of Primary Teacher, which was rejected on the ground that as required, he did not possess 50% marks in the 10+2 examination.

While issuing notice of motion, this Court had issued interim directions that the petitioner would be provisionally interviewed for the post of Primary Teacher but his result would not to be declared without the leave of the Court.

After repeated directions issued by this Court to produce the result of the petitioner in a sealed cover, when the same was not done, on 10.05.2016, I directed the Secretary, Haryana Staff Selection Commission to be present in Court alongwith the result of the petitioner in a sealed cover.

As directed, the Secretary, Haryana Staff Selection Commission, is present in Court and expresses his regrets for non-compliance of the orders of this Court. He assures the Court that he would take necessary steps to streamline the working of his office so that the Court orders are promptly complied with.

While accepting the afore-said explanation, the result of the petitioner which is in a sealed cover has been opened which shows that he has secured a total of 48.34 marks as against 63.12 marks secured by the last person selected and appointed in the category to which the petitioner belongs.

In view of the above, learned counsel for the petitioner does not press the present petition.

Dismissed as not pressed.

The result of the petitioner be resealed and handed over back to the learned State counsel.
