ANITA CHAUDHRY, J. (ORAL)

On 29.09.2015 the matter was heard by a coordinate Bench of this court and it was categorically held that no ground for quashing is made out. But in view of the fact that there was a prayer on behalf of the petitioner to amicably settle the dispute, notice was ordered to be issued to respondent No.1 for mediation, subject to costs of ₹20,000/- to be paid to respondent No.1.

None has appeared for the petitioner even on second call. There is no appearance even on the last date of hearing. Counsel for the respondents states that a sum of ₹20,000/- has still not been paid.

Learned counsel for the respondent pointed out that on request of learned counsel for the petitioner the matter was referred to the Mediation Centre and the petitioner was directed to pay ₹20,000/- to respondent No.1 but the petitioner refused to pay the amount.

The petition is dismissed.

The respondent can recover the amount in the court below.
