CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE DAYA CHAUDHARY

Present: Mr. A.S. Trikha, Advocate

DAYA CHAUDHARY, J. (ORAL)

The petitioner is an accused in case FIR No.132 dated 16.05.2013 for offence under Sections 354-A(i) (2)/376(2)(f)(i) read with Section 34 IPC and Sections 6 and 7 of POCSO Act. He was convicted and sentenced to undergo rigorous imprisonment for a period of 10 years. He has filed criminal appeal before this Court which is still pending. An application was moved by the applicant for grant of parole for getting his children admitted in the School but his claim was rejected by the authorities concerned on the ground that his case falls under the category of hardcore criminals.

Learned State counsel submits that the parole was sought for getting his children admitted in the School for the session 2015 and as such the admissions are already over, the present petition has become infructuous.

Keeping in view the submission made by learned counsel for the petitioner the parole was sought for getting admission of children during the Session 2015 but now new session has started and the application moved by the petitioner has become infructuous.

Dismissed as infructuous. However, the petitioner is at liberty to move fresh application for grant of parole for the new session in case his children have not been admitted.
