KULDIP SINGH J. (ORAL)

The revisionists were convicted by the learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Naraingarh, District Ambala, for commission of offences punishable under Sections 323, 324, 326, 452 and 506 IPC read with Section 34 IPC, vide judgment of conviction dated 17.3.2015 and order of sentence date 19.3.2015. In appeal, the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Ambala, vide judgment dated 17.12.2015, acquitted the present revisionists under Sections 326 and 452 IPC. However, their sentence under Sections 323, 324, 506/34 IPC was maintained.

Notice of the revision was given to the State as well as to the five injured.

The injured have appeared. The limited prayer made before this Court is for releasing the revisionists on probation on the ground that they are first offenders.

The State has filed the custody certificates of the revisionists, which show that the no other case is pending or decided against them and that they have not been convicted in any other case. It shows that the revisionists are first offenders. The conviction is under Sections 323, 324, 506/34 IPC.

In these circumstances, the revisionists are given a chance to reform themselves. Therefore, while maintaining the conviction of the revisionists for commission of offence punishable under Sections 323, 324 and 506/34 IPC, the sentence passed upon them is set aside and they are ordered to be released on probation on their furnishing probation bonds in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Ambala, with an undertaking to maintain peace and be of good behaviour, failing which they will surrender before the trial Court to receive the sentence that may be passed upon them. The revisionists are also directed to pay compensation of Rs. 25,000/- each i.e. Rs. 1,00,000/- in total, which shall be equally shared by all the five injured.

With the abovesaid modification, the present revision is disposed of.
