JITENDRA CHAUHAN, J. (Oral)

This petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for quashing of order dated 26.06.2015 and for extension of parole for 4 weeks as the petitioner wants to repair/construct his house.

It is asserted that the petitioner was earlier availed the parole twice in the years 2006 and 2008 and he did not misuse the concession of parole and himself surrendered in terms of the releasing orders.

On the other hand, the learned State counsel states that in the year 2008, the petitioner surrendered after delay of four days, however, he admits that the petitioner himself surrendered before the competent authority.

Heard.

In view of the fact that the petitioner has not misused the concession of parole and surrendered himself before the competent authority, the petitioner is ordered to be released on parole, for a period of four weeks from the date of his release, as per the Rules, on furnishing bonds to the satisfaction of the District Magistrate concerned.

The petitioner shall surrender before the jail authorities after expiry of four weeks, on the date and time to be indicated by the releasing authority at the time of his release.
