JASPAL SINGH, J. (ORAL)

Shortly put, the case of the petitioner giving rise to the instant petition is that an application dated December 09, 2015 submitted by Ms. Gurnam Kaur W/o Pragat Singh, R/o Village Thatha, Tehsil and District Tarn Taran was received in Chief Justice's, Secretariat which was treated as a habeas corpus petition. It has been averred in the application that his daughter-in-law Jagdish Kaur w/o Harpal Singh has been arrested by City Police Station, Jagraon about 4 & 5 days back without any fault.

In pursuance of the application, notice of motion, was issued for today.

Today, learned State counsel submits that Jagdish Kaur was not detained illegally, rather FIR No.263 dated 26.11.2015, under Sections 212, 216, 120-B IPC & 25/61/85 Arms Act, Police Station City Jagraon was registered against her and in connection with the said FIR, she was arrested on 02.12.2015 by Police Station City Jagraon. Thus, the allegations leveled against the police in the application cannot be termed to be bona-fide and the same are not at all established.

In view of the above narrated facts and circumstances, no further action is required on the application.

The instant petition stands disposed of.
