Reply received that the son of the petitioner was never taken by the Amritsar police.

The statement of Asha Rani (complainant) was recorded, in which she stated that her son Jatinder Kumar alias Jolly was taken by the police of district Tarn Taran for questioning and was later on released. Now, she is living with her son. She does not know about any police station and staff, who had taken her son for questioning to Tarn Taran.

As such, the present petition has become infructuous and is accordingly disposed of.
