Learned counsel for respondent No.4 submits that possession of the insured vehicle was taken by respondent No.4-Bank and thereafter, it was sold. Consequently, accounts of the parties have been settled, rendering the present writ petition as infructuous. He further submits that this is the reason that nobody is putting appearance on behalf of the petitioner for the last more than two years. He also submits that he has got instructions to say that petitioner is no more interested in pursuing the present writ petition.

In view of the abovesaid statement made by learned counsel for respondent No.4, instant writ petition is disposed of, as having been rendered infructuous.
