T.P.S. MANN, J. (Oral)

Prayer made in the petition is for extension of parole, already granted to the petitioner on 31.12.2015, for four weeks.

According to the petitioner, he was granted parole by the Inspector General (Prisons), Chandigarh for four weeks i.e. from 31.12.2015 to 29.1.2016 in order to enable him to look after his ailing mother, aged 80 years, who, according to him, was in the evening of her life. She was confined to bed and advised regular physiotherapy. The petitioner is her only son and as such, he wants to serve his mother at this stage of her life.

Upon notice, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for UT, Chandigarh has informed the Court that apart from being released on parole for a period of four weeks, the petitioner has already been sanctioned temporary release under Section 4 of the Punjab Good Conduct Prisoners (Temporary Release) Act, 1962 for a period of twenty one days. In this regard, she has produced photocopy of Form-B issued by the Home Secretary, Chandigarh Administration. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor has also apprised the Court that once the petitioner surrenders before the Jail Authorities on expiry of parole, he can be again released pursuant to the aforementioned release warrant by furnishing requisite bonds.

As the petitioner has already been sanctioned temporary release for a period of twenty one days, which he has not availed so far, but he can do so by furnishing requisite bonds, the present petition has been rendered infructuous and is, accordingly, disposed of.
