CRWP-1251-2016

DATE OF DECISION: 26.9.2016

JIT SINGH

... Petitioner

VS.

STATE OF PUNJAB AND ANR.

.. Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE S.S. SARON
HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE LISA GILL

Present: Mr. Rajdeep Singh Gill, Advocate for the petitioner.

S.S. SARON, J.

The petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India to direct the respondents to release the petitioner on parole for six weeks to repair of his house.

There is no averment in the petition that the petitioner made an application to the jail authorities for his temporary release on parole. It is, however, mentioned that the jail authorities recommended the case of the petitioner to the Additional Director General of Police, Jail Department who forwarded the case to the District Magistrate, Ludhiana. No particulars as to when the case was recommended by the jail authorities or forwarded by the Additional Director General of Police of Jail Department is mentioned. A Panchayat certificate dated 17.8.2016 (Annexure P-1) has been placed on record recommending the release of the petitioner on parole. However, there is no averment whether the said certificate (Annexure P-1) of the Panchayat was submitted to the jail authorities.

In the circumstances, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he may be allowed to withdraw the petition so as to approach the jail authorities in the first instance and in case he had already approached the jail authorities then file a fresh petition by making necessary averments in that regard.

Dismissed as withdrawn.
