Prayer in this petition is for issuancing a writ in the nature of habeas corpus for the release of the detenues mentioned in para No.2 of the writ petition from the illegal and unlawful custody of the respondents by appointing a Warrant Officer.

No one is present on behalf of the petitioner. However, the report of the Warrant Officer is placed on record.

Reply on behalf of respondents No.1 and 2 has been filed through Mr.Mandip Singh Brar, District Magistrate, Panchkula, in Court today and the same is taken on record.

As per the reply, during inspection, the petitioner and other labourers as mentioned in the petition were not found at the brick kiln. Even the report of the Warrant Officer dated 25.02.2016 suggests that the petitioner has identified the labourers which include men, women and children and all these were released and handed over the custody to the petitioner.

In view of the report of the Warrant Officer when the alleged detainees have already been released, no further order is required to be passed.
