Prayer in this petition filed under Article 226 of Constitution of India read with Section 3 (1) (b) of Haryana Good Conduct Prisoners (Temporary Release) Act, 1988, is for releasing the petitioner, Dilbag Singh, a convict, undergoing sentence for the offence punishable under Section 302, IPC, confined in District Jail, Jind, for participating in the marriage of his son, Kismat, and daughter, Meenu, whose marriages are to be solemnized on 13.01.2016 and 14.01.2016, respectively, at Village Badanpur, Tehsil Narwana, District Jind.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that despite repeated requests to grant parole to the petitioner, the competent authorities have failed to adhere the same, therefore, the petitioner has no option, but to approach this Court for grant of parole to him to perform the marriages of his son and daughter, respectively. He further submits that in the year 2016, the petitioner has not availed any parole. He further submits that in the year 2015, the petitioner was released on parole four times, but he always abide by the conditions laid down in the release bonds and surrendered before the authorities in time.

Learned counsel for the State has not controverted the fact that the petitioner is confined in District Jail, Jind. He has also not denied the fact that the petitioner was released four times on parole in the year 2015 and did not misuse the said concession. He, however, has opposed the grant of parole to the petitioner on the premise that he has failed to apply to the concerned authorities for releasing him on parole in the year 2016. He further submits that if the parole is granted to the petitioner by order of this Court, then it be mentioned in the order that the parole which he will avail would be deducted from the period to which he is entitled in the year 2016.

After hearing learned counsel for the parties, this Court finds that the marriages of the son and daughter of the petitioner are fixed for 13.01.2016 and 14.01.2016, to be performed at Village Badanpur, Tehsil Narwana, District Jind. In the year 2015, the petitioner was granted the consession of parole four times and he did not misuse the same.

In view of the urgency of the matter, while exercising the jurisdiction under Section 482, Cr.P.C., it is directed that the petitioner, Dilbag Singh, son of Chatra, resident of Village and Post Office Badanpur, Tehsil Narwana, District Jind, be released on parole for ten days, subject to his furnishing indemnity bonds in the sum of ₹ 1,00,000/- (Rupees One Lac only) to the satisfaction of District Magistrate, Jind/Additional District Magistrate, Jind, from the date of his release from the District Jail, Jind, on eleventh day at 9:30 a.m., he would surrender at the gate of District Jail, Jind. It is made clear that the period of parole granted by this Court would be deducted from the period to which the petitioner is entitled in the year 2016.

The copy of the order be supplied to learned counsel for the petitioner under the signatures of the Court Secretary.
