Reply on behalf of the State has been filed in the Court today and the same is taken on record.

It is stated that detainee Kuldip Singh is wanted in two cases. He is on the run and has not been arrested by the police. In the reply, there is mention about registration of other five FIRs against the detainee and his family members.

Since the detainee has not been arrested by the police and is already wanted, therefore, the present habeas corpus petition stands dismissed.
