Instant writ petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus, directing respondent No. 1 not to pass judgment/final order in the revision application No. 52 of 2013 titled as "Piara Singh Kohli (deceased) through his legal heir Dheeraj Goel Vs. The Special Secretary Finance and another".

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner has already filed a probate petition, which is pending before the Court of Additional District Judge, Chandigarh.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the paper book.

This Court is of the view that the passing an order restraining the competent authority from passing the final order would not be justified in the present case. As and when the issue with regard to probate of the Will is decided, the petitioner will have a right to bring the judgment of the civil Court to the notice of the competent authority. I have no doubt that the authority will follow the judgment and do the needful in accordance with law.

In view of above, the present petition is dismissed. Any observation made in this order shall not be taken as an expression on the merit of the case and nothing said therein will prejudice the rights of the petitioner.
