S. J. VAZI FDAR, A. C. J. (ORAL)

By the impugned letter dated 02.02.2015, the respondents have demanded an amount of ₹ 18,24,086/- which included interest till 31.12.2014.

2. The petitioner was advised to pay the same failing which the respondents stated that proceedings for resumption would be initiated. The petitioner has not even responded to this letter to date. He has neither made payment as demanded, nor replied to the letter. There is no warrant for interfering in the writ jurisdiction at this stage. The petitioner is always at liberty to reply to the letter dated 02.02.2015 and raise all his contentions.

3. The writ petition is accordingly disposed of.
