AJAY KUMAR MITTAL, J. (Oral)

1. Learned Senior counsel for the petitioners contends that inadvertently, certain documents could not be attached along with the present petition and certain relevant facts have been missed in the petition. Accordingly, a prayer was made that he may be allowed to withdraw the present writ petition and Civil Misc. No.6944-CWP of 2016 with liberty to the petitioners to file a fresh petition on the same cause of action by furnishing the complete documents and better particulars.

2. Learned counsel for the respondents pleads no objection to the same.

3. Dismissed as withdrawn with liberty as prayed for.
4. In view of the withdrawal of main petition, no further orders are called for in Civil Misc. Nos.5506 of 2015 and 16335 of 2015 and the same are disposed of as such.
5. Office is directed to tag the records of the present writ petition with the fresh writ petition as and when the same is filed.
