I attest to the accuracy and authenticity of this document
High Court Chandigarh

India and others” and CWP No.13879 of 2015 titled as “M/s Mahavir Agro Industries Vs. Union of India and others” because similar issue is involved therein.

It is a common case of the parties that the respondents have invoked the arbitration proceedings in which the petitioner has prayed that he may be allowed to file counter-claim.

Learned counsel for the respondents has submitted that the petitioner is otherwise a defaulter and thus he has rightly not been considered.

Be that as it may, since the arbitration proceedings are pending, the petitioner may, if so advised, file counter claim for any such loss having been caused to it as per the order which has been issued by the Government of India for extension of time for delivery of custom milling rice for the crop year 2013-14.

Disposed of.
