Present: Mr.Ajay Thakur, Advocate and

S.J.VAZIFDAR, ACTING CHIEF JUSTICE (ORAL):

The petitioner has challenged a notice dated 06.06.2014 (Annexure P1) calling upon it to show cause as to why the plot in question should not be resumed forthwith.

There is no warrant for interfering with the show cause notice at this stage. The petitioner is always at liberty to raise all the questions of law and fact in the proceedings that have been proposed to be initiated against it by the respondents.

The petition is therefore disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to answer the show cause notice. Needless to add that all the contentions of law and fact are kept open. The petitioner is also at liberty to avail of the opportunity to have the disputes settled as stated in the letter dated 15.02.2016. It is of course for the parties including the respondents to decide whether or not the matter ought to be settled and the terms of settlement.
