- 3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest? Yes/No

Present: Mr. Malkeet Singh, Advocate for the petitioner.

Daya Chaudhary, J. (Oral)

This writ petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of certiorari for quashing of transfer order dated 15.07.2016 by raising various grounds.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was issued a show cause notice and reply to the same has already been filed. The transfer order has been passed because of issuance of show cause notice. Certain other grounds have been raised by learned counsel for the petitioner.

Admittedly, the petitioner has not moved any representation and without moving any representation and approaching the concerned authorities, the present writ petition has been filed.

Learned counsel for the petitioner wants to withdraw this writ petition with liberty to approach the concerned authorities by moving representation. Learned counsel for the petitioner also prays for issuance of direction to decide the representation.

The present writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn.

Since no representation has been moved so far and in case, any representation is moved within a period of two weeks with the concerned authorities, respondent No.2 is directed to consider the representation and take necessary action in accordance with law within a period of two weeks thereafter.
