Feeling aggrieved against the impugned order dated 16.06.2016

(Annexure P3) passed by the Registrar General of Societies cum Director General of Industries and Commerce, Haryana, whereby appeal of the petitioner was dismissed upholding the order dated 28.10.2015 (Annexure P2) passed by said Registrar of societies, Haryana, petitioner has approached this Court by way of instant writ petition under Article 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India seeking a writ in the nature of certiorari for quashing the impugned orders.

Notice of motion was issued and in compliance thereto, written statement has been filed on behalf of the contesting respondents no.2 and 4.

Learned counsel for the State as well as learned counsel for contesting respondents no.2 and 4 submit that since in compliance of the impugned order dated 16.06.2016 (Annexure P3), fresh order had already been passed, by the District Registrar of Societies, Ambala on 15.07.2016 which was not brought to the notice of this Court at the time of notice of motion, the writ petition was not maintainable because the impugned orders were not mere existing. They further submit that in compliance of the order dated 15.07.2016 having been passed by the competent authority, elections electing the office bearers of the respondent Sabha, as a matter of fact, had already taken place on 16.10.2016 because of which the present writ petition has been rendered infructuous.

Faced with the above, learned counsel for the petitioner also fairly states that let the present writ petition be disposed off as having been rendered infructuous in view of the statement made by learned counsel for respondents but liberty may be granted to the petitioner to avail his other remedies including challenging the result of election, before the appropriate forum, in accordance with law.

In view of the above said fair submissions having been made on behalf of the parties, present writ petition is disposed off with liberty as prayed for.

Disposed off accordingly.
