Upasna Attri

..... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab and another

..... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASWANT SINGH

Present: Mr. Narinder S. Lucky, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Vaibhav Sharma, Deputy Advocate General, Punjab
for the respondents/State.

JASWANT SINGH, J. (ORAL)

Petitioner-Upasna Attri was appointed as an Instructor on 89 days basis/contract basis at Industrial Training Institute (ITI), Samrala, under the control of Director Technical Education Department vide appointment letter dated 31.05.1996 and her contract period was extended from time to time. Her services as Clerk were regularized vide order dated 09.12.2004 (Annexure P-2) in terms of the then existing regularization policy dated 26.05.2003.

The grievance of the petitioner is that by ignoring her previous service, she is being treated as an employee under the New Pension Scheme applicable w.e.f. 01.01.2004 instead of the Old Pension Scheme.

It is claimed that in the light of authoritative judgment rendered by this Court on the issue in case bearing Civil Writ Petition (CWP) No. 2371 of 2010, titled Harbans Lal Versus The State of Punjab and Others, decided on 31.08.2010, the petitioner is entitled to be covered under the Old

Pension Scheme.

Upon notice, a reply by way of affidavit dated 27.09.2016 of Shri Harpal Singh, Deputy Director, Department of Technical Education and Industrial Training, Punjab, has been filed. It is conceded that the petitioner is entitled to be covered under the Old Pension Scheme, and accordingly, a General Provident Fund Account Number has been allotted to the petitioner from the date of regularization of her services. Thus, it is submitted that the present petition has become infructuous.

In the light of the stand of the respondents in their written statement, learned counsel for the petitioner concedes that the present petition has become infructuous.

Accordingly, the instant writ petition stands dismissed as infructuous.
