RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J

Feeling aggrieved against the alleged inaction on the part of respondent authorities, petitioners have approached this court by way of instant writ petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, seeking a writ in the nature of Mandamus.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that when the genuine grievance of the petitioners was not being redressed by the respondent authorities, they finally approached the respondent authorities by way of legal notice dated 22.7.2016 (Annexure P-8), but the same is also pending decision. He further submits that the petitioners will be satisfied in case respondent no.2 is directed to consider and decide the representation of the petitioners, within a reasonable time.

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioners and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties, the Director General, Education Sr. Secondary, Punjab Building of Punjab School Education Board, Mohali-respondent no.2 is directed to look into the matter, consider the grievance of the petitioners raised in their legal notice dated 22.7.2016 (Annexure P-8) and decide the same at an early date keeping in view the urgency of the matter, by passing an appropriate order thereon, strictly in accordance with law, but in any case within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order, keeping .

With the above said observations made and directions issued, instant writ petition stands disposed of.
