CHANDIGARH

CWP No.16653 of 2016
Date of decision:17.8.2016

Varinderjit Kaur

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr.M.L.Saini, Advocate for the petitioner.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

Feeling aggrieved against the order dated 15.7.2016 (Annexure P-9), whereby Administrator has been appointed to look after day to day functioning of the Gram Panchayat, petitioner has approached this Court by way of present writ petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, seeking a writ in the nature of certiorari for quashing of the impugned order.

During the course of hearing, when confronted with the order dated 30.9.2015 passed by this Court in CWP No.16569 of 2015 (Binder Kaur Vs. State of Punjab and others) on exactly the same issue, which is involved in the present case, pointing out that the impugned order is revisable before the Secretary to Government of Punjab, Department of Rural Development and Panchayats under Section 201 of the Punjab Panchayati Raj Act, 1994, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission of the Court to withdraw the instant writ petition with liberty to the petitioner to avail her equally efficacious alternative remedy of revision petition against the impugned order, at the first instance.

Permission is granted.

Dismissed as withdrawn, with liberty as prayed for.

It is also directed that in case the petitioner approaches the competent authority by filing a revision petition against the impugned order within a period of one week from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order, the competent authority shall decide the same at an early date and in any case within a period of one month thereafter.

Disposed of, accordingly.
