RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that in the same incident, two persons died. Qua one, CWP No.198 of 2013 (Madhu and another Vs. State of Haryana and others) has already been allowed by this Court, vide order dated 06.10.2015 (Annexure P-11). Present writ petition is also arising out of the same incident, because of which it would be squarely covered by the order dated 06.10.2015 passed by this Court in Madhu's case (supra). He prays for disposal of the present writ petition in terms of the order dated 06.10.2015 passed by this Court in Madhu's case (supra).

Faced with the above, learned counsel for the State could not deny the correctness of the statement made by learned counsel for the petitioners and rightly so, it being a matter of record.

In view of the abovesaid undisputed fact situation obtaining on the record of the present case, instant writ petition is disposed of, in terms of the order dated 06.10.2015 passed by this Court in Madhu's case (supra).

However at this stage, learned counsel for the petitioners fairly states that petitioners would be entitled not for an amount of Rs.15,96,000/-, as awarded to the petitioners of CWP No.198 of 2013 by this Court, vide order dated 06.10.2015, but the petitioners herein would be entitled, as per the calculations arrived at, only for an amount of Rs.14,34,000/-. Abovesaid statement made by learned counsel for the petitioners has also gone undisputed. The fair statement made by learned counsel for the petitioners deserves to be accepted.

Consequently, applying the order dated 06.10.2015 passed by this Court in Madhu's case (supra), to the facts of the case in hand, petitioners are held entitled for an amount of Rs.14,34,000/- along with interest @9% per annum from the date of death till the date of realization. Other terms of the order dated 06.10.2015 passed this Court would be applied mutatis mutandis to the facts of the present case.

Resultantly, with the abovesaid observations made and directions issued, present writ petition stands allowed, however, with no order as to costs.
