The only grievance of the petitioner, who is involved in a case under NDPS Act, is that after he was released on bail by the court, he is not allowed to attend his classes for B. Tech. (Mechanical), despite a representation made. The prayer is for a direction to respondent No. 1 to take a final decision on the representation made by the petitioner.

Without opining on the merits of the controversy, the present petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No. 1 to take a final decision on the representation made by the petitioner within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of copy of the order.
