... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Rameshwar Singh Malik, J. (Oral)

Feeling aggrieved against the alleged inaction on the part of respondent authorities, petitioner has approached this Court by way of instant writ petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, seeking a writ in the nature of mandamus.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that when the genuine grievance of the petitioner was not being redressed, she finally approached the respondent authorities, by way of representation dated 09.03.2016 (Annexure P-7), but the same is also pending decision. She further submits that the petitioner will be satisfied in case respondent No.2 is directed to consider and decide her representation, within a reasonable time.

CWP No.17996 of 2016

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and without expressing any opinion on the merits of case, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties, the present writ petition is disposed of, with a direction to respondent No.2, to look into the matter, consider the grievance of the petitioner raised vide her representation dated 09.03.2016 (Annexure P-7) and decide the same at an early date, by passing an appropriate order thereon, strictly in accordance with law, but in any case within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order.

With the above-said observations made and directions issued, the instant writ petition stands disposed of.
